

CarNext.com Global Insights: Spain - The rise of SUV's in 2021

Online second-hand car purchases consolidate their upward trend in Spain, spurred on by the effects of the pandemic

Bilbao and Malaga, the cities with the greatest rise in interest for second-hand cars

Data from our platform show the clear predisposition of buyers for SUV models, an attractive format for families that, in times of lockdown restrictions, grows in importance as it facilitates much longed-for city breaks, together with the security that only a private car can provide.
